DEATH OF W. W. CORCORAN

THE WELL KNOWN PHILANTHROPIST
DIES AT WASHINGTON.

Being Successful in Business, He Made
Himself Famous By Charities of Various Kinds, Which are Said to Have Aggregated About Three Million Dollars.

WILLIAM W. CORCORAN.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—W. W. Corcoran died here at 6:30 this morning of senile bronchitis in the ninetyeth year of his age. His end was peaceful. The duration of his present illness was but two weeks, though he has been gradually failing for the past year.

Mr. Corcoran was born in Georgetown, D. C., December 27, 1798. His father, Thomas Corcoran, was born in Limerick, Ireland, and coming to this country in 1783 married Hannah Lemmon, of Baltimore, in 1788. The son, at the age of eighteen years, entered into the dry goods business with two older brothers, George Peabody was soon afterwards taken into the firm. They were at first successful, but under the stress of the financial panic of 1833, failed, with assets that paid their creditors 50 per cent.

Several years later Mr. Corcoran began business again, taking charge of the real estate in the District of Columbia belonging to the United States, managing it safely and profitably until 1845, when he went into the banking business with George W. Riggs. The business was successful, but Mr. Corcoran's financial ventures were so extensive that Mr. Riggs, becoming afraid, retired from the firm, Mr. Corcoran carrying on the business alone, found himself with $12,000,000 of the Mexican war loan on his hands in a falling market. He went to London, enlisted great banking houses there in support of a loan that seemed perilous, but that subsequently rose to a high premium and laid the basis of a fortune that at the time of his death amounted to $6,000,000.

He retired from active participation in the banking business in 1854, and found plenty to do in the management of his own property affairs. Plans of benevolence seem to have taken the foremost place in his solicitude of later years.

The fruition of some of them are seen here in the beautiful Oak Hill cemetery in Georgetown, the Corcoran art gallery in this city with its magnificent endowment, the Louise home for impoverished gentlemen, the name indicating his love and memory for a wife and daughter, both of whom are dead; countless gifts to churches, church homes, rich benefactions to colleges and universities, and theological seminaries, ceaseless contributions to institutions of public charity, besides thousands of dollars given away to needy individuals. It is estimated that Mr. Corcoran's charities, including private ones, exceed in the aggregate $3,000,000.

Mr. Corcoran has long made his home in Washington, the seat of an elegant hospitality, and a center of social influence, the favorite meeting place of scholars, artists, statesmen, diplomats and distinguished strangers.

Mr. Corcoran in 1835 married Louise Amory Morris, daughter of Commodore Charles Morris. Mrs. Corcoran died five years later. Their first child, a boy, died when an infant, and an only daughter, Louise, who married George Eustis, a brother of the present Senator Eustis, of Louisiana, died in 1867, leaving two sons and a daughter, who will undoubtedly inherit the bulk Mr. Corcoran's fortune which is estimated at $6,000,000.

"SIXES" AND "NINES."

Two Gangs of Negroes Have a Pitch Battle in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 25.—Two gangs of colored men, styling themselves "The Nines" and "The Sixes," had an encounter on Charles street, the best known promenade of the city, last night. Throwing stones and bricks was freely indulged in, and then firing pistols. For a time the streets became a regular pandemonium, and during the melee about fifty shots were fired. It is said that a lady and child were injured by being struck with bricks.

Mrs. House, who was an eye witness of a portion of the fight, said her attention was attracted by hooting and yelling of a crowd of men and boys. She saw that the noise came from a large number of colored people, some of whom were throwing stones and others firing pistols. One of the smaller stones struck a large plate-glass in her store and ruined it. Finally the crowd turned up Charles street, "The Nines" falling back and "The Sixes" pursuing. In front of the residence of Cardinal Gibbons "The Nines" started westward.

At this point firing became very brisk, and this and the throwing of bricks and stones was kept up until the "Nines" broke ranks and ran toward their homes in the western part of the city. Many ladies were forced to take refuge in the stores. While the rioting was at its highest a policeman arrested William Tydings, a colored man, who is well known in police circles, with a smoking revolver in his hand, from which four shots had been fired. The policeman pulled him out of the crowd, and was taking him down Charles street, when a confederate of Tydings tripped the policeman and nearly threw him to the pavement. He got his prisoner to the station house, however. The others will soon be in custody.

MOUNT VERNON, ILLINOIS.

The Work of Rebuilding the Destroyed Village Under Way.

MOUNT VERNON, Ill., Feb. 25.—The work of rebuilding is under full headway. Every man that can handle a hatchet, trowel, ax or shovel is employed, and there is a call for more. The wounded are getting along very well, except several of those more severely injured at the court house, who will probably die. There are thirty wounded now at the supreme court house. The appellate court, which meets in the supreme court house, is to meet Tuesday next, and will adjourn over, as the wounded there cannot be moved. The doctors attending the wounded and the relief committee have divided the city into districts, to facilitate their work.

Excursion trains are still running on all roads. The Jacksonville & Southeastern brought an excursion over the Louisville & Nashville yesterday with about six hundred people, and an excursion on the Louisville & Nashville from Evansville brought about five hundred people. Besides these regular trains were packed.

Contributions are coming in liberally from all over the country, but the committee is so crowded with work that it is unable to arrange the list in detail.

The work of reopening the supreme court house is now under way, and will be completed by Saturday night.

A man tried to commit suicide yesterday, and was locked up in jail and deprived of all weapons or means by which he might injure himself. His reason was no doubt dethroned by the great strain during the last few days.

RUSHING THINGS.

The President Visits the Exposition and Palatka—Many Disappointed.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 25.—The president, Mrs. Cleveland and party visited the exposition yesterday and then started for St. Augustine, where a tour of the city was made and a public reception was held in the evening.

At Palatka.

PALATKA, Fla., Feb. 25.—The presidential party reached East Palatka at 10:45 last night and Palatka city at 11:05. At the latter point the crowd was great, and after getting the people into something like order, the president shook hands with them as they passed by him. The train started from Palatka at 11:30. Hundreds of people who came in from towns, some as far as 300 miles, were disappointed by an erroneous announcement that the president would give a reception at the Putnam house.

Not Pleuro-Pneumonia.

NEW CASTLE, Ind., Feb. 25.—Much uneasiness has been created among the farmers and stock men of this community lately by the reported existence of pleuro-pneumonia among the cattle belonging to William Pate, a farmer living three miles from here. The report made by the state veterinarian when he examined the herd some time ago did not agree with the views of other veterinarians who have examined them, among whom was Dr. Butler, state veterinary of Ohio, and failed to satisfy those most interested. Today Dr. D. E. Salmon, of Washington, chief of the bureau of animal industry, and others went to Mr. Pate's farm to make a further examination. They slaughtered three of the diseased animals, and after a rigid and thorough examination of their lungs, Dr. Salmon declares that no symptoms of contagious pleuro-pneumonia exists in the herd. This effectually settles the matter.

Confidence Man Arrested.

ANDERSON, Ind., Feb. 25.—Frank Hunter, alias "Don" Hunter, a notorious confidence man, car thief and flim-flam worker, was arrested here by Marshal O'Meara, while attempting to work the flim-flam game on Miss Winnie Alford, clerk in the postoffice newsstand. He is now in jail on a ten days' sentence from Mayor McClure, awaiting orders from other points. He worked his confidence games and change rackets successfully here a year ago, but escaped. He is known to have committed forgery, robbed freight cars and have been engaged in shooting scrapes. He is about twenty-three years old, tall, slender and smooth-faced.

Explosion of Sewer Gas.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 25.—The torch of a lamplighter ignited the sewer gas in the new sewer on Baum street about 6:30 last night. The flame leaped up about three feet, and after it was extinguished, a terrific explosion about a hundred feet further up the street threw the manhole head into the front of Joe Weber's grocery at No. 52 Baum, breaking considerable window glass. The neighborhood was all torn up and labored under the impression that an earthquake was in progress.

Virtually an Advance.

READING, Pa., Feb. 25.—One of the most interesting announcements to the miners yesterday emanated from the office of General Superintendent Whiting, of the Reading company. It was in the nature of an order reducing the price of supplies, which the company's miners secure from the company. These supplies include powder, oil, picks, fuses and other material used by the miners while at work, and the effect of the order reducing the price of them is virtually an advance price.

Attempt to Burn a Family Alive.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Feb. 25.—An attempt was made in this county Wednesday night, by a gang of unknown men, to cremate a family alive. A white man, William Myers, had been living with a colored woman, and had several children. A party of men, to punish this conduct, surrounded the house, barred up all doors and windows on the outside, and set the building on fire in several places. An ax was in the house, and with this Myers cut a hole in the door in time to save himself and the other inmates from a terrible death, but they were severely burned.

Held for Counterfeiting.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Feb. 25.—Yesterday morning the police arrested George Shown, who will be taken to Indianapolis to answer to the charge of passing counterfeit money. He is thought to be a member of the gang that has been flooding this section of the state with spurious coin.

Toledo Blade Burned Out.

TOLEDO, O., Feb. 25.—The Blade Printing company's office and works were visited by fire early this morning, but not totally destroyed. Loss, $25,000; insured.

OVER A MILLION DOLLARS.

UNCLE SAM'S LOSS BY THE HAVANA
OPIUM SMLGGLING.

Over Sixty Tons of the Drug Mysteriously
Disappears Between New York City and
Havana, Cuba—A New York Chinaman's
Proposition to the Authorities.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—The Spanish consul general at Havana has been cabling for information bearing upon the frauds committed between New York and that port, and has obtained statistics and reports of the Havana opium imports for the last three years.

The consul general has given a report written in Spanish, giving the results of the investigation, and on that report and others which are shortly to come from Havana in conjunction with the outcome of the investigation here, proceedings are likely to be based, which will make things lively for certain handlers of the drug. The Spanish government is naturally as anxious to find out what portion of the enormous nominal export from New York to Havana really gets to Havana. Perhaps before the investigation is ended there will be another shaking up of the vessels of the Ward steamship line.

While the Spanish consul and customs authorities here are reticent as to the actual results of the investigation so far, it is known that approximately there has been withdrawn in the last three years from bonded stores by opium importers in this city, ostensibly for the re-exportation to Havana, 140,000 pounds of opium, and the amount actually bonded at Havana during that time has been in the neighborhood of 8,000 pounds. If the odd 132,000 pounds have been smuggled back, and where refined opium is dutiable at $10 a pound, Uncle Sam has lost $1,320,000. If they were crude opium, the loss of duty is $132,000.

It was learned yesterday that Carter, Rollins & Ledyard, representing James E. Ward & Company, owners of the ship, Cienfuegos, which was libeled and bonded at Havana in October because eight cases of opium were found secreted aboard of her which were not on the manifest, have brought suit against McKesson & Robbins for $7,500 the amount paid by the Wards to the Spanish government for the release of their ship. The suit was brought early in January, but Mr. Ledyard has been averse to giving it publicity. When asked yesterday why the Wards sued McKesson & Robbins, he only smiled and said that would come out on the trial, and pending the investigation of the alleged opium frauds by Collector Magone he would not tell why McKesson & Robbins figured as defendants in the suit.

Lawyer Thomas N. Cuthbert, for McKesson & Robbins, said he had until the end of the month to answer the complaint. He added: "I understand that the withdrawals of opium from bond have been found to be in excess of the actual exports to Havana. That may be so. The point is, however, that all our opium got to Havana." It is averred that $300,000 is spent every year for opium in our Chinatown. Mott, Mulberry and all the streets in that neighborhood will be ransacked for smuggled opium.

Wong Chin Foo has sent a letter to the customs authorities saying that he can ferret out the opium smugglers among his people, but he demands 50 per cent of the value of all seizures. Collector Magone and Chief Holahan, of the special treasury agents, think Wong Chin Foo's terms are pretty steep, and they add that they are not authorized to hire him.

Smuggler Arrested.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Feb. 25.—Ephraim Gardner has been taken to Utica to await the action of the United States grand jury, on the charge of opium smuggling. His cousin, E. R. Gardner, has been taken to Canton jail in accordance with instructions from United States Marshal Bunn, to await his examination on the second charge, which has been postponed to March 2 by request of the defense, who say they will bring witnesses from the Pacific coast.

The chest seized a week ago has been discovered to have false panels and sides in which ninety of the packages of opium seized could be conveyed without fear of detection.

CHICAGO'S NEW WATER TUNNEL.

Something Struck Resembling Oil—Railroad Tracks Sinking.

CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—Oil, or something very much like it, has been struck in the water tunnel shaft on the lake front. On the water that, with the quicksand, is pumped from the shaft, there is a black, oily substance, that forms, when skimmed off, a soft pliable cake. The odor, however, is not like petroleum, and the experts are puzzled. Superintendent Onderdunk thinks that the discovery of this oily substance is a pretty fair indication that they are now not very far from a rock ledge, and therefore has high hopes that the worst of the quicksand trouble is about over.

The facts as they exist are not so rosy. Instead of the quicksand showing signs of exhaustion, it rather seems to be increasing, and the impending danger grows worse every hour. Since Monday the Illinois Central railway tracks have sunk nearly one foot, and yesterday were in worse condition than at any previous time. Ton after ton of cinders is unloaded directly east of the shaft, and a heavy force of railroad hands at once goes to work at raising the track and throwing in the cinders. No matter how fast the men work, they find it more than difficult to keep the track level.

Superintendent Onderdunk said: "I don't think there is any danger to property along Michigan avenue, because there is no indication whatever that the west side of the shaft is sinking. We take a level every day to ascertain this fact, and so long as there are no indications that the west side is giving way, we will continue to work, but the very moment there is any giving way toward Michigan avenue, we will stop work at once. I see nothing to apprehend any danger from."

GRAND ARMY OF INDIANA.

The State Encampment Closes—Union Veterans at Youngstown, O.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 25.—The department encampment, Grand Army, completed its work yesterday and adjourned. Among the resolutions adopted was one reaffirming the previous indorsement of the pension measure. Officers elected: Angus D. Vansold, Madison, commander; Shelby Sexton, North Manchester, senior vice commander; Col. I. B. McDonald, Columbus City, junior vice commander; Dr. A. R. Tucker, Cicero, medical director; H. C. Tinney, Lafayette; W. H. H. Shewmaker, Muncie; N. N. Boydson, Warsaw; William N. Cochran, Indianapolis, and Nicholas Ensley, Auburn, council of administration. Col. L. N. Walker, Indianapolis, will be reappointed assistant adjutant general.

The state convention, Women's Relief corps, adjourned last night. In the afternoon a clash by the opposing divisions was avoided by the National councillor, Mrs. Kate B. Sherwood, ruling that Mrs. Flora E. Wulschner, president of the Indiana division, was not eligible for re-election of the combined divisions, a rule having been adopted limiting the office to one term. Mrs. Agnes Hitt, of Indianapolis, was elected president.

Union Veterans.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Feb. 25.—At the closing session of the National encampment Union Veteran legion, National officers were elected as follows: Commander, A. L. Pearson, of Pittsburg; senior vice commander, G. J. R. Miller, of Philadelphia; junior vice commander, Christina Stawitz, of St. Louis; quartermaster general, F. L. Blair, of Pittsburg; inspector general, W. B. Chapman, of Bradford, Pa.; surgeon general, Dr. J. S. Crawford, of Greensburg, Pa.; chaplain-in-chief, Rev. N. H. Holmes, of New Castle, Pa. The next annual encampment will be held at Altoona, Pa., the date to be announced later. A resolution was adopted making eligible to membership all honorably discharged soldiers who enlisted for two years before July 22, 1861. Pittsburg was made the National headquarters of the legion.

CHICAGO'S LAKE FRONT.

Justice Harlan Renders His Decision on this Much Contested Question.

CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—Justice Harlan, sitting as a judge of the United States circuit court, has delivered the opinion of that court in the lake front case. It is a suit brought originally by the state of Illinois against the Illinois Central railroad, wherein the city was made a party and in which the United States afterwards joined.

The opinion of the court sustains the title of the city in what is known as the lake front, between Twelfth and Madison streets, and west of the railway tracks and the land which it claims north of Madison street holds that the railroad company has a title to the land it now uses north of Randolph street, and sustains it in building piers south of Twelfth street and north of Randolph, but decides that the act of the legislature of 1869 whereby it was given the submerged lands for one mile into the lake, was repealed and inoperative and the outer harbor of Chicago is returned to the city. The Illinois Central railroad will appeal.

Hold Arizona Robbers.

TUCSON, Ariz., Feb. 25.—The west bound train on the Southern Pacific road was boarded by two masked men at Stein's Pass station about 8 o'clock last evening. After the train had started the men crawled over the water tank, covered the engineer and fireman with rifles, and when a mile and a half from the station the engineer was compelled to stop the train. One of the robbers uncoupled the mail and express car, with the engine, from the other part of the train. The engineer was compelled to move on a mile and a half further, when the robbers again ordered him to stop and then forced the Wells, Fargo & Company's express messengers to open the car, which they rifled, but without disturbing the mails. The engineer was next ordered to go back and take up the other part of the train, and the robbers left the railroad and started in a southerly direction. The train arrived here on time. The express robbery is reported heavy. A special train was placed at the disposal of Marshal Wade, and several officers, with two Indian trailers and horses, left for the scene.

Cutting Prices.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 25.—At a meeting of coke operators an understanding was reached resulting in an agreement to cut prices for March twenty-five cents per ton, or $1.50 for furnaces; $1.60 for dealers and $1.75 for foundrymen. The meeting adjourned until to-morrow, when the final arrangements will probably be made and officers of the new combination elected. It will consist of the old syndicate firms and J. W. Moore, representing the producers. A Connellsville dispatch says that on account of the decreased coal production about three thousand men are idle, and that the reduction in selling price of coke will make a 15 per cent. reduction in wages, which the cokers will doubtless refuse to accept.

Another Trust Exposed.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—The Times exposes another trust in the shape of the ultra marine combination. It is known as the Consolidated Ultra Marine company. The principal firm in it is that of Hiller & Herz, who made a large fortune in ultra marine before other houses went into the manufacture. Prices then dropped to an unprofitable figure, until Hiller & Herz got their competitors to pool issues with them. Prices have since advanced from six and one-half cents to twenty cents per pound.

$16,000 For His Legs.

TROY, O., Feb. 25.—On October 20, 1886, John Donaher, while unloading freight between the switch and main track of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad at this place, had both legs crushed below the knee by a passing engine, by reason of which both legs were amputated. Suit for $30,000 was entered about one year ago. The trial was commenced on the 21st inst., and ended in a verdict for plaintiff for $16,000.

OTTAWA, Feb. 25.—The chief government measure of the present session of parliament will be a bill to consolidate and improve the railway act. The bill, it is said, will be based on the recommendation of the commission on railways, who, it is understood, advise the incorporation into the Dominion statutes of several of the provisions of the United States interstate commerce bill.

A Valuable Piece of Horseflesh.

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 25.—United States Senator Stockbridge, of Michigan, to-day sold his noted stallion, Bell Boy, to Frankfort, Ky., parties for $35,000. He was purchased last year from Senator Stanford, of California, for $5,000. To-day's price is the highest ever paid for a three-year-old.

Our Spring Tailoring Department

Is in fine feather—we were never so well prepared, and can insure you that such a line of Woolens has never before been shown here. We arranged, while in New York, to receive reports of any novelties that developed as soon as they appeared, and are much better equipped in this department than any other house in the State. We have exclusive sale of several lines of Imported Woolens, which are things of beauty. To those wanting something extremely nobby and exclusive we would advise to call and make their selection at once, as they will find many desirable styles now that it will be impossible to get later. Our work we guarantee of the highest standard, as we employ nothing but first-class, artistic workmen, and our prices you will find right. We honestly claim to do the only strictly FIRST-CLASS TAILORING done in Maysville. We will have much of importance to say to you later, but are so busy at present selling our remnants of Winter Goods and opening up our "Beauties" for Spring that we are compelled to cut our paper talk short this week.

IMMENSE ATTRACTIONS

an impetus to our trade that we never before experienced so early in the season. IN OUR CUSTOM DEPARTMENT the anxiety shown by our patrons to select early is something wonderful, and at the same time gratifying to us. The complimentary comments on our Piece Goods is only equaled by the surprisingly large number of orders received up to this time.

OUR SPECIALTIES FOR EARLY SPRING: A beautiful line of SPRING TOP COATS, the handsomest garments ever shown here; a grand line of ENGLISH CHEVIOT SUITS, made and cut equal to the best custom work. In DRESS SUITS we show the grandest line imaginable. We have the agency for the STAR CHILDREN'S WAISTS, and invite mothers to call and see them. Our prices will always be found lower than those of any other house in the State, considering the quality of goods. In fact never has our fixed purpose, viz: to sell better goods for less money than any other house in the State, been so clearly demonstrated as in the past year. We will endeavor to more than merit the continuance of the public's favor in the future.

TARIFF PROBABILITIES.

PROVINCIAL JOURNALS VIEW IT WITH ALARM.

They Think American Tariffs are the Outcome of High Tariffs—A Point That Russia Can't Forget—The North German Gazette's Comment—Other News Notes.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—English journals, especially the provincial journals, view with increasing alarm the possibility of a surrender of Great Britain to a policy of partial protection in the shape of a tariff on imports.

Lord Salisbury's avowal, made a short time ago to a visiting fair trade delegation, that he thought a tariff might safely be put upon a few articles which now enter English ports free, is taken as legitimate grounds for feeling that the government might be induced to think as he does, and that the country may soon be committed to a sort of fair trade, if not a more extensive tariff policy.

Lengthy reports of the investigation of trusts now going on in New York have been cabled here, and printed in full, and English papers have seized upon the opportunity afforded by the condition of things as represented to be the result of the formation of trusts, and preach various homilies for the edification of their readers. Naturally they attribute the evils of the trust system to the high tariff which exists in America, and declare that if the United States would adopt free trade the trust companies could no longer exist; that with the duty removed from the articles which form the basis of the various trust companies, a competition would ensue that would completely overwhelm the monopolies now enjoyed by these companies, and protected by the government.

The Manchester and Liverpool newspapers are especially severe in their criticism of a policy, by means of which such enormous monopolies could grow and thrive to the detriment of the country at large, and loudly decry such a condition of things for England, which they solemnly declare will come to pass if any tariff notions are indulged in by the government. They instance Germany whose tariff increases, as year by year, Bismarck needs money to support his idle armies, and predict that if the existing conditions, prevail in that country that the so-called "trusts" will be formed then, run undoubtedly by the government, and that all business interests will be paralyzed in consequence.

Something Russia Cannot Forget.

PESTH, Feb. 25.—The Nemzet (semi-official) says the exchange of views among the powers regarding Bulgaria continues, and there is now no chance of the adoption of forcible measures against her.

The assumption that Russia will have no excuse for war or a resort to forcible measures in Bulgaria, if the porte undertakes the deposition of Ferdinand and the selection of another prince is not believed in by diplomats. The following paragraph from Russia's official statement regarding Bulgarian affairs indicates what she expects:

"Russia cannot forget that Bulgaria owes her freedom more especially to Russia, and that it is not in the suppression but in the defense of the rights of the Bulgarians that Russia's mission lies. Only the persons who were called upon to guide Bulgaria's destinies would understand how to make reasonable use of these rights."

It means that no one but Russia shall organize Bulgaria, and in order to do that she will find it necessary to occupy the principality with troops. That will be her final demand which she is prepared to fight for. If the Bulgarian sultanate will elect a prince indicated by the czar, who will be his tool, take Russian politicians for his advisers, officer his little army with Russians, and run the country as a Russian dependency all but in name, then the czar will be content and there will be no war.

A Bulgarian Question.

BERLIN, Feb. 25.—The North German Gazette, on the Bulgarian question, contends that the Russian proposals do not require the unanimous support of the powers before being accepted by the porte.

The Gazette says in the event of an immediate demand being made by Russia Germany is prepared to give it diplomatic support.

The porte can, on its own initiative, declare the present Bulgarian government illegal, as being contrary to the provisions of the treaty of Berlin. Should Russia demand that the porte make changes in the government of Bulgaria to conform with the provisions of the treaty, Turkey could not decline to do so without denial to justice.

Gladstonians Surprised.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—The election at Doncaster to-day was a complete surprise to the Gladstonians, who felt confident of victory, the result being the return of the Unionist candidate, Hon. Henry Fitzwilliam, who received 5,634 votes, Mr. Spencer Balfour, the Gladstonian candidate, receiving 5,423 votes. Mr. Fitzwilliam's election was undoubtedly due to his landed influence in Yorkshire, and with this for a lever the Unionists have been working hard. This government victory, coupled with the fact that the Liberals do not intend to run a candidate for the Hampstead seat, renders the Unionists very jubilant.

Italians in Abyssinia.

ROME, Feb. 25.—The Italian troops in Abyssinia have advanced to Ghinda, in the province of Tigno, and Ras Alula has evacuated the place. That is the way with the Abyssinians. They get invaders away from their fortifications onto their own ground and then go for them. We are likely to hear of a grand Waterloo of the Italians before long.

No Better.

SAN REMO, Feb. 25.—The official bulletin states that the rest of the crown prince was disturbed during the first part of last night by coughing, but the remainder of the night he slept well. The death of Prince Louis of Baden, his nephew, has a depressing effect upon the prince.

The Standard Oil Company's Contract.

DULUTH, Minn., Feb. 25.—Officials of the Standard Oil company here say that the company has contracted for four new vessels to carry oil in bulk from Cleveland to Duluth. On their return trips they will carry iron ore.

Explosion—One Man Killed.

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 25.—The boiler in the sawmill of John Hyde, at Golden, Oceana county, exploded yesterday afternoon, killing Fireman Lamb and severely injuring another man. The mill is a complete wreck.

MUST STAY IN JAIL.

Judge Sage Says There is No Precedent for Taking Ben. Hopkins Home.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 25.—The application for the removal of Ben. Hopkins from the jail to his home pending sentence and sickness was decided by Judge Sage at noon.

Dr. F. Dowling, medical examiner of the United States court, made an examination of Hopkins' condition at 11 a. m. Dr. McKenzie was present. Dr. Dowling then submitted a verbal report to Judge Sage. Capt. James S. Wise, Capt. J. D. Parker and Chris Kinsinger, the committee who made the application for his removal, were present when the decision was rendered.

Judge Sage said that he had examined the question carefully and could find no precedent for the removal. The rule as laid down by Wharton is to permit bail only where the court has doubt as to the guilt of the defendant or where there are doubtful questions of law, and then only in cases where there is a higher jurisdiction. This case is ended. Nothing remains but to impose the sentence of the court. While the court might have sympathy for Hopkins' family, it could only follow the law. The application would therefore be refused.

Capt. Wise said: "I want to disabuse your mind of the idea that we are here in the interest of Hopkins. We are only here in the interest of his family."

Judge Sage said: "Oh, I know that."

Dr. Dowling stated to a reporter that "Hopkins' condition is fair. He has dropsy of the stomach. But dropsy is only a symptom, not a disease. His heart and kidneys are sound, but he has hardening of the liver. The disease is organic and therefore incurable. A patient thus troubled may live a good many years."

MANUFACTURING METALS.

A New System Which Bids Fair to Revolutionize It.

FITCHBURG, Mass., Feb. 25.—The 150 members of the American Institute of Mining Engineers, now holding in Boston the eighteenth annual meeting of the institute, visited this city yesterday to examine the Simond's rolling machinery, a new device which is destined to revolutionize the manufacture of metals. It may be briefly described as a machine in which two flat surfaces, acting vertically, or horizontally and moving in opposite directions, with adjustable dies fixed upon them, roll in one motion a piece of metal regular or irregular shape and in almost any pattern desired.

At a single stroke of the mechanism may be obtained a sphere, a cone, a chair screw, a bolt with thread and head, a car or carriage axle, and an endless variety of other forms.

The visiting experts were amazed and delighted. "It is the greatest thing in half a century," said one. "It marks a new era in the manufacture of iron and steel," said another, and so the comments ran.

This extraordinary machine has only lately become known to engineering experts, and has only just now been made known to the general public.

A Sensation in Court.

BANGOR, Me., Feb. 25.—When Clarence Whitney and James Foster were brought into court yesterday, to plead to the charge of having committed the famous robbery and attempt at murder of old Peter Bennett, the miser at Eastport, last December, Foster caused a sensation by pleading guilty. Whitney nearly fainted when he heard his companion's plea, but he, himself, pleaded not guilty. Foster says he will tell the whole story, implicating himself and Whitney. He takes this course in order to avoid a trial, in which his history would be brought out. Foster is not his real name, and he does not want to disgrace his family, who are said to be prominent in New York state.

A Barber's Bad Break.

NEW CASTLE, Ind., Feb. 25.—Russell B. Armstrong, son of Capt. M. P. Armstrong, of this city, attempted suicide at Indianapolis last night by shooting himself in the breast. He had just been arrested for taking a notorious woman to a respectable hotel and registering as man and wife. He has been dissipating for some time here, and is a barber by trade. He will die.

Manitobans Displeased.

WINNIPEG, Man., Feb. 25.—The omission of any reference to Manitoba's anti-disfranchisement movement, in the speech from the throne at the opening of the Dominion parliament, has tended to greatly embitter the sentiment with which the Federal authorities' action in the matter is regarded by a majority of the people here.

Natural Gas in Dakota.

ASHTON, Dak., Feb. 25.—The Ashton Gas and Fuel company yesterday afternoon struck a heavy flow of natural gas at a depth of one hundred feet. The flame burns steadily from a three-inch hole, and rises to a height of four feet. Coal has also been struck in the same place.

Moonshiners Captured.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 25.—Deputy Internal Revenue Collector Hughes came in last night from Grundy county with moonshiner prisoners whom he had captured at their illicit stills in the mountains. Three crooked distilleries and their contents were destroyed by the officers.

A Farmer Mysteriously Missing.

OSGOOD, Ind., Feb. 25.—Dick Meyer, a farmer, living four miles north of this place, has been mysteriously missing for several days. No trace of him can be found, and relatives and friends are almost distracted. He leaves a wife and baby.

Chinese Highbinders Arrested.

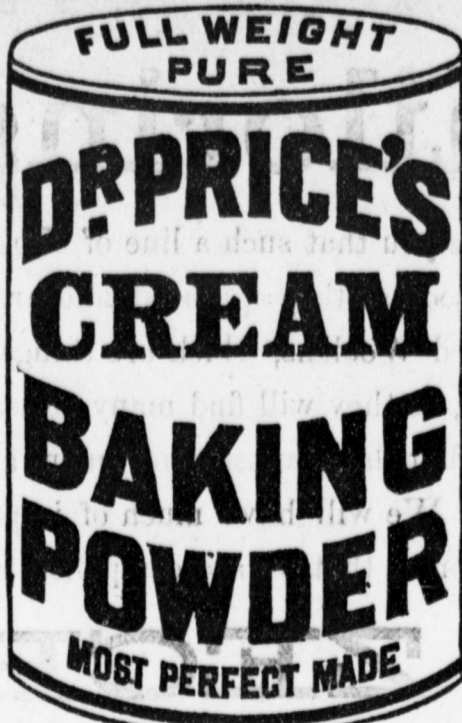

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 25.—Four Chinese Highbinders were arrested this afternoon for assault to murder a Chinese interpreter, who had testified against them in the courts. They beat him with iron bars and brass knuckles, and he was so weak to-day when brought in to identify the Highbinders that he fainted. He has a white wife and a young son who is at a college in Washington city.

Elevator Accident.

BROOKLYN, Feb. 25.—Eight men crowded into the freight elevator of one of Havemeyer & Elder's sugar refineries, Williamsburg, at noon to-day. The weight carried the car off the cogs at the seventh story and it fell to the cellar. Two men were severely, but not fatally injured and were taken to St. Catherine's hospital. Three more were slightly injured.

Engineers to Strike.

CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—It is reported that the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy engineers will strike for the increase in wages asked some days since.
